

Zach Brown, Policy Advocacy

Zach Brown was born and raised in the Gallatin Valley, graduating from Bozeman High in 2009 and the University of Montana in 2013. From 2014 to 2020, he worked as a nonprofit professional in addition to serving three terms representing Gallatin County in the Montana House of Representatives. As a Representative, Zach sat on the House Fish, Wildlife & Parks Committee, was the Vice Chair of the House Natural Resources Committee, and served as Chairman of the bipartisan Water Policy Interim Committee. He was also appointed by Governor Bullock to serve two terms on the Private Land Public Wildlife Council and was a founding Co-Chair of the bipartisan Montana Sportsman's Caucus. As a staff member at One Montana, he helped to start the Montana Master Hunter Program on behalf of the Common Ground advisory board.

He currently lives in Bozeman with his wife Alice Buckley - who is currently serving in the Montana Legislature - and their two rescue dogs, Norman and Wanda. As a pack, they love to float, fish, hike, hunt big game, and spend time with their extended family members sprinkled around Gallatin and Park Counties. In 2020, Zach was elected as a Gallatin County Commissioner
